GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

It is the responsibility of Studio Representatives to ensure that all attendees from their studio (Including but not limited to: Performers, Teachers, Choreographers, Parents, Viewers, etc.) adhere to the rules and regulations put forth by CoreDance Productions. Failure to follow rules and regulations may result in ejection from an event, disqualification, as well as being barred from all future CoreDance Events. Adhering to our protocols will help to ensure we continue to run safe, inclusive, and community driven events.

General Behavior and Event Etiquette:

All parents, teachers, students and event staff, are required to demonstrate respectful behavior at all times

- There will be zero tolerance of derogatory statements concerning another studio or fellow dancer at any time.
- CoreDance reserves to right to deny entrance to any person(s) who are participating in abusive behavior of any kind
- Event staff will be held to the same standard as all attendees of any CoreDance event.
- Use of vulgar language by all individuals will not be tolerated, including music with inappropriate content
- Attendees as well as staff are required to treat hosting venues with respect. Any inappropriate treatment of the venue will result in fines and/or being barred from the venue permanently without notice (this includes but is not limited to: Vandalism, Littering, Theft, Failure to follow Venue Health & Safety Protocols
- Inappropriate behavior pertaining to (but not limited to) any of the above noted rules, may result in being barred from all CoreDance events permanently and without notice.

Backstage & Checking in

Dancers, Teachers, Choreographers, or Designated Studio Representatives will be the only individuals permitted in the Dancer Zone (Includes Backstage, Warmup Space, Changing Areas) and must check in before every performance.

- All studio reps can check in at the Merchandise table in order to receive their badge and package. Reps will need to have their badge in order to be permitted in the Dancer Zones
- Dancers or a Studio Rep may check-in routines backstage at the media table as early as the start of their scheduled session. Dancers that do not check in at least 2 dances prior may be considered as "Withdrawn".
- Dancers and studio reps are responsible for keeping a copy of and monitoring the schedule. Performers should be backstage 2 dances prior to their scheduled performance. A member of the CoreDance team WILL NOT chase down performers to ensure they are backstage. Any dancers that miss their performance slot will be considered "Withdrawn" and will not be rescheduled
- CoreDance reserves the right to designate change rooms for each studio depending on space available. Dancers and studio reps are required to obey all displayed signage in order to ensure ample space for all participants
- Absolutely no garbage is to be left at the theatre, and change rooms should be left clean at the end of each
- Parents may not view performances from the wings NO EXCEPTIONS

Use of Props

All performers are welcome to use props in their performances! Studio reps can let us know prop information when they register. Props can be stored in the backstage area (space permitting) during your session. All items must be removed at the end of the session (no overnight storage).

- Performers and Studio reps are responsible for setting and striking all props.
- Please communicate how much time you need to set/strike your props when you check-in backstage.
- Studio Reps/Performers are responsible for any additional sweeps for any loose items left on the stage i.e. feathers, confetti, costume pieces, etc.
- CoreDance is not responsible for the loss or damage of props
- We cannot Guarantee any overnight storage of Props at the facility
- If needed, trucks and trailers may drop off and pick up props only at the Warehouse/Bay doors. No long-term parking will be permitted in that area. All vehicles will need to be parked in the designated parking areas for the event.

General Performance Rules:

All performers must adhere to the following or may face a deduction in points, or possibly disqualification

- Performers must use wings to enter and exit for their performances (No Exceptions)
- Once routine has begun, the stage should not be left empty
- Absolutely no touching of the curtains or cyc at any time.
- The use of Rosin will be permitted but will not be supplied by CoreDance. (No other powders or creams may be used)

Viewing Performances

We encourage community support at all of our events and welcome all studio reps and performers to watch and cheer for all dancers. Heckling of any kind will not be tolerated.

- All reps and dancers are welcome to watch and cheer for dancers backstage as long as maximum capacity has not been exceeded. A member of the CoreDance team will let you know if you need to vacate the backstage area.
- Studio Reps will require their badge in order to view backstage or from the audience.
- Performers may view from the audience free of charge (space permitting)
- Absolutely no sitting or watching from the wings unless you are assisting with props/costume changes
- Any individuals watching backstage that are impeding a performance in any way will be asked to leave immediately
- Absolutely no video recording of any kind will be permitted during performances

REGISTRATION

Accounts & Accurate Representation:

Studio representatives are required to complete registration by the pre-designated registration dates. All routines are expected to be entered accurately and with as much detail as possible including, Division, Style, Age, Title, Etc. <https://core.signup.dance/>

Studios may enter routines in multiple live events as well as Virtual Competitions

- Reservations are required in order to register routines. Reserve 1 spot for every routine you hope to register. You can easily add spots as needed!
- All routines must be entered by a qualified studio representative using a SINGLE DanceSync account for each studio.
- All routines entered after the registration closure date may be denied entry into a CoreDance Competition
- Studios are required to keep up to date and accurate contact information in their DanceSync account (Including but not limited to: Contact Representative Name, Email Address, Mailing Address, etc.)
- Dancer Birthdates must be entered accurately including their year of birth Studios found entering birthdates inaccurately may be asked to provide proof of age, and may be barred from CoreDance events if the activity continues*
- Changes of any kind to routines, must be made in advance by a qualified Studio Representative through DanceSync a minimum of 14 days prior to commencement of the corresponding event. Changes made less than 30 days prior to the commencement of the event will not be reflected in printed programs*
- Studios are required to submit all change request to draft schedules within 7 days of receiving the schedule CoreDance cannot guarantee to approve all change requests including having specific days & performance times for studios*
- We cannot accommodate non-urgent changes to the schedule once the corresponding event has begun.
- All Dancers that appear on the stage as a participating performer in a routine MUST be included in the routine registration
- If a routine has a mixture of styles and does not fit into one of our Style Categories, routines should be entered as "Production" and should notify CoreDance in Advance if Fly/Tap mics are required (subject to availability at different events)

Divisions Breakdown

Breakthrough: Dancers have up to 2 years of experience + Training a maximum of 3hrs per week. This division is ideal for dancers just starting out as well as recreational dancers

Competitive: Dancers have 3 or more years of experience + Training less than 10hrs per week. This division is ideal for dancers who do not train at a recreational level

Accelerated: Dancers have 3 or more years of experience + Training over 10hrs per week. This division is ideal for dancers in half day programs, secondary training companies, as well as pre professional programs

Adult: Any routine with the average age of 19yrs or higher. Routines with 2 or more dancers of 19yrs must be registered in the Adult Division

High School: Dancers in this division must be part of a program facilitated by the school registering the routine.

Adjudication Only: Dancers in this division will not receive a score and therefore will not be eligible for Standings Pins, Placement Trophies, or Top Score awards. Performers will still be eligible to be selected as Honours routines

Style Selection:

We are thrilled to offer nearly 20 different performance styles to choose from when registering for our events. When selecting each style, please choose the one that best suits your routine

Acrobatic "Tricks" recommended limit 2 per routine if it is NOT registered as Acro. No tumbling passes in any routines other than registered Acro routines. Adjudicators may deduct points for inappropriate/over use of Acrobatic tricks.*

Age Categories:

DanceSync calculates age based on the EXACT age of a dancer as of January 1st of the corresponding year of the registered event. Categories will be assigned based on the average age of all dancers registered for that routine.

- If there are 2 or more dancers over the age of 18 in a single routine, it must be registered as an "Adult" routine.
- If there is at least 1 dancer over the age of 20 in a single routine, it must be registered as an "Adult" routine
- Dancers may perform against themselves in the same age category, however we can shift dancers up by one age category if requested by the studio. Dancers may not go down an age category

Music Requirements:

Your music for each routine can be uploaded easily into your DanceSync account and must be submitted at least 14 days prior to the commencement of the event. We will play your music for you, so you don't have to worry!

- Music cues can be communicated at the media table when you check-in backstage prior to your scheduled performance
- We recommend all studio reps carry an extra copy of music on a phone, tablet or laptop.
- Max Music Time Limits: Solo/Duo/Trio 3:00MIN, Groups 5:00MIN, Production 15:00MIN

VIRTUAL COMPETITIONS

Virtual Competitions are ELITE video-based events that bring dance communities together across the country. You can register for virtual competitions through your DanceSync account once registration launches for the season <https://core.signup.dance/>
